

U.P. FOOTBALL ALL-STAR GAME

BK Named Awards Provider for All-Star Football Game

IRON MOUNTAIN, MI - BK Enterprises, Your Local Engraving Place, has been named the Official Awards Provider for the U.P. Football All-Star Game, which takes place on Saturday, June 30 at the Superior Dome.

BK Enterprises provides many of the area schools and businesses with their awards, including trophies, plaques and individual recognitions. BK will be providing the all-star player, coach and sponsor plaques, the most valuable player plaques, as well as sponsoring the Championship Travelling Trophy.

The trophy is awarded to the winning team in the all-star contest, and will be held by that team until next year's game, where it will be again be put up as the prize. The trophy stands nearly two feet in height, features a full-size gold football, the game logo and each year's game score.

"We are so happy that Brenda (Mattson) and BK have agreed to participate in the game again. They have an outstanding reputation in the community and having providers involved that are from the U.P. makes the event that much more special", reported event organizers.

In addition to donating many of the awards for the game, BK will also make available to the public team and individual plaques to commemorate the game.

"BK has gone out of their way to support this game, as well as the players and coaches, and we are thankful for their generosity. The awards provided will certainly become keepsakes for many people long after the game concludes", said all-star game chairman.
